Proverbs 3: 5 & 6 "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on
Your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths."

Dear Partners and Friends;

For some time Darlene and I have known that a change in our ministry was inevitable. We have always "trusted in the Lord" that He would "direct our paths" in areas of ministry and He has always done so. The old plow horse (defines me well, a plodder) is in time turned out to pasture. Thankfully our President/CEO was not ready to do so with us! He, along with the Board of Directors, asked us to transition into a different role with Hard Hats for Christ. Over the years HH4C volunteers across the country have touched many communities, churches, and lives for the kingdom of Christ. Now it is time to revisit many of those contacts, to challenge them to help so that others may be blessed by volunteer labors and the work of Hard Hats for Christ can not only continue, but increase.

Enclosed you will find a letter from Dave Williamson, our mission President, explaining our new position in more detail and what is expected of us. Your continued partnership is essential as more extensive travel will be involved. Have you noticed that the cost of vehicles, maintenance, fuel and lodging are on an ever increasing climb?

Please pray with us as we strive to blend our new responsibilities with staying active on a more limited basis in the construction/maintenance ministry. I also covet your prayers as mission representation takes me a bit out of my comfort zone.

To bring you up to date a little on our lives in 2012, we arrived home in late April for two weeks. On May 14th we headed to Newell, SD, where we spent 7 weeks. Along with three other couples from Hard Hats, and some help from the community and the church, we were able to get under roof a new 50' X 80' sanctuary for Newell Christian Fellowship. We returned home in early July for a few weeks before heading west for a ten week jaunt which included a lot of visitation, encouragement, recruitment, the Staff Rendezvous, training at the HH4C office, and a lot of travel.

May you have a Blessed Christmas season. We pray that 2013 be filled with joy. Darlene and I thank you for partnering with us in ministry over these many years. Without you this ministry would not be possible! It has been a rewarding and full 33 plus years. We look forward to what the Lord has for us in this new season of ministry. "He who called us has been faithful to sustain us."
